

Admissions

"We absolutely love Bethany school! We couldn't be more thankful for what they teach our child, not to mention the relationship she has built with Jesus. The Bethany staff is amazing! They have helped to instill great character and morals in our child and it shines through each and every day."

Rob and Marylou Silva

WHO CAN APPLY?

Bethany Lutheran School welcomes students of any race, color, sex, nationality or ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs, and activities of the school. Bethany does not unlawfully discriminate in the administration of educational policies, admissions policies, financial aid, or any other school-sponsored program. Bethany Lutheran School may not be able to fully provide a successful academic experience for all students who have need for specific accommodations, as in an Individualized Education Plan (IEP).

- We encourage families to schedule a class visit or tour. This allows your family the opportunity to experience daily life at Bethany, to ask questions, and to enjoy the Bethany atmosphere. (Student feedback is both helpful and beneficial for the family's decision-making process).
- Attending an Open House allows the opportunity to meet our office staff and teaching staff to learn more about our school.
